Getting Here
Relocation Information for getting to Alaska

ORDERS
Make sure your PCS orders state that you are authorized to travel the ALCAN or the ALCAN and marine highway if you are going to be using both. If you deviate from your travel plans, you need to have your orders amended to receive travel pay that will adequately cover your mode of travel.

PLAN AHEAD
Plan ahead for gas stops, lodging or camping and rest stops. There can be many miles between these but careful planning can greatly reduce the risk of being stranded. Be aware that roads may be rough due to frost heaves. There are areas where dirt roads and highway maintenance will slow your travel and the possibility of gravel hitting, chipping or breaking your windshield is high. Don't follow other vehicles too closely. Be prepared for most minor vehicle repairs such as flat tires, replacing belts or spark plugs. Emergency gear in your vehicle can help you to avoid dangerous situations if you break down. Weather in some areas can change drastically in a very short time, even during the summer months. Make sure you have appropriate clothing and supplies.

YOUTH SPONSORSHIP
Youth moving to Ft Wainwright may email the Relocation Readiness Program Manager at acsreloc@wainwright.army.mil to request a youth sponsor and information about Fort Wainwright, area schools and the local community.

SHIPPING YOUR POV
If you ship a vehicle to Ft Wainwright/ Fairbanks between October and April or ship the vehicle early and plan to pick the vehicle up between October and April, the vehicle must have anti-freeze protection to -60F. The vehicle should also have a strong battery.
